SPARK is a 45-minute adaptation of Robin's Wish, the first documentary about someone with Lewy Body Dementia, released nationwide in 2020. The film focuses on the journey that comedian and actor Robin Williams and his wife, Susan, traveled before his death. The film will highlight key messages that can enhance learning and understanding of LBD, improve diagnosis and detection, and offer families of people with LBD a way to feel connected to resources and support.

Discussion panelists will include

Greg Jicha, MD, PhD, John Slevin, MD, surprise guest experts & LBD patients and caregivers
